

January - March

Updates...

This is my first newsletter to keep you up to date on what's going on in my wonderful world of acting. I will only be producing this newsletter quarterly, however if you wish to be removed from the mailing, please let me know.

- I recently shot new headshots with the talented Tim Coburn.
- I was recently elected to the position of VP of Communications for the Actors' Center.
- I will be understudying Imagination Stage's Rep of James and the Giant Peach and The Magic Finger in April and July.

You may have seen me on your TV recently asking the ever important question "What does that mean?" for Koons Automotive. Check out the commercial here!

Mark Your Calendars!

I will be performing in Unexpected Stage's production of Lady in the Van by Alan Bennett at the Randolph Road Theater July 19 – August 11.

I will once again be involved with the Source Festival's 10 minute plays in June. You won't want to miss my journey as I return to my mother's womb and play a mysterious French spy who loves cheese and baguettes. I would love to have your support!

Be sure to check my website for current and upcoming events!

"Playing Shakespeare is very tiring. You never get to sit down, unless you're the king." – Josephine King